

LEADERSHIP SESSION: FROM SURVIVING TO THRIVING

DECEMBER 3, 2020 10-11:30 A.M.

FACILITATOR: CATHERINE SMEY CARSTON, PH.D.

PLEASE JOIN US IN CONVERSATION ABOUT LEADERSHIP AMID COVID. HOW DO WE CONTINUE TO LEAD AND INSPIRE DURING THESE TRYING TIMES? THIS INFORMATIVE AND INTERACTIVE SESSION WILL OFFER PROVOCATIONS FOR LEADERS TO EXPLORE THEIR ETHICAL RESPONSIBILITY IN REGARDS TO SELF-CARE, TRUST BUILDING, AND MOTIVATING EFFECTIVE TEAMS.

Catherine Smey Carston, PhD, is an associate professor in the Department of Child Studies and Social Work at Mount Royal University. Her thirty year career span includes a variety of frontline, leadership, research and teaching roles in the field of early learning. She is the co-lead of a team of researchers and practitioners who are exploring learning and implementation strategies for the Alberta Early Learning and Care Curriculum Framework.

There is no cost for this session. MHDCCA members only. Intended for program directors. Register by emailing mjusher@telus.net. A link to the Goto meeting will be sent upon registration. If you are unable to make this time of day, please let Jennifer know as a second session could be scheduled if there is enough interest.